Choke points of the World

Fiscal Federalism (XVth Finance Commission)

Why in News?

Since its constitution on November 27, 2017, the Fifteenth Finance Commission's Terms of Reference evoked concerns from some states owing to its mandate for the use of population data from census 2011 instead of 1971. There were also issues like creation of non-lapsable defence fund and use of certain parameters for performance incentives that induced debates in the span of its operation. Besides, it was the first Commission to submit its report in times of a global pandemic that had slowed down economic growth and made the assessment of revenues difficult.
